Senior Investigator (Applied Leadership) (under review)*Full-time, Temporary Appointment (one-year)*Location: Victoria, B.C.*Salary: $78,515.33 - $85,090.99 (under review). Salary on appointment as per RCY's salary administration policy.

The Representative for Children and Youth, an independent officer of the B.C. Legislature, works to influence positive change to B.C.'s child-, youth- and young adult-serving system. The Representative's Office provides advocacy support to people dealing with the service system and advocates directly on behalf of children, youth and young adults, monitors and reviews government services to children and youth and reviews and sometimes investigates deaths and critical injuries of children and youth who are receiving services.

Reporting to the Chief Investigator, the Senior Investigator carries out the job duties of an Investigator and is also responsible for overseeing the quality and management of Case Reviews to ensure the timely and effective production of high quality individual and aggregate reports. The Senior Investigator will manage the Case Review process by tracking priorities, identifying trends in data, and recommending and developing policies, practices and quality improvement strategies. The Senior Investigator will provide the Manager, CID and the Chief Investigator with expertise in review methodologies and subject matter expertise across reviewable and designated services.
