The Office of the Representative for Children and Youth hosts a Corporate Shared Services unit supporting two offices of the Legislature: the Office of the Representative for Children and Youth and BC's Office of the Human Rights Commissioner. The services provided under the memorandum of understanding include finance, facilities, information technology and privacy, and human resources.

The Representative for Children and Youth (RCY) provides advocacy support to people dealing with the child and youth service system, monitors and reviews government services to children and youth and reviews and investigates selected deaths and critical injuries of children and youth who are receiving services, with a particular focus on First Nations, Métis, and urban Indigenous children and youth. BC's Office of the Human Rights Commissioner (BCOHRC) promotes and protects human rights through research, policy development, and public inquiries into issues of systemic discrimination.

RCY and the BCOHRC share the values of promoting dignity and respect and upholding the rights of marginalized individuals and communities. The offices are committed to ensuring that policies, procedures and practices are rights-based, culturally attuned and agile. We honour the unique backgrounds, viewpoints, rights and beliefs of children, youth and adults; everyone is treated with dignity, equality and trust.

Reporting to the Chief Information Officer the Data Warehouse Analyst will lead the business and technical design, development and maintenance of the data warehouse and integrate data from various open data sources and our internal case management system to meet our operational research and reporting needs.
