Office of the Representative for Children and Youth

Business Manager

Band 2

Permanent, full-time under the Public Service Act

Location: Victoria, B.C.

Salary: Band 2, $69,600 - $98,400 The starting salary for this position is $77,900 subject to the considerations of the MCCF Compensation Rules and RCY's salary administration policy.

The Representative for Children and Youth (RCY), an independent officer of the B.C. Legislature, works to influence positive change to B.C.'s child-, youth- and young adult-serving systems. The Representative's Office is mandated to provide direct advocacy support to children and youth who are connected to the child and youth service system; to monitor and review government services for children and youth; and to review and investigate deaths and critical injuries of children and youth in B.C.

The Office of the Representative for Children and Youth hosts a Corporate Shared Services unit supporting BC's Office of the Human Rights Commissioner (BCOHRC). BCOHRC exists to address the root causes of inequality, discrimination and injustice in B.C. by shifting laws, policies, practices and cultures. They do this work through education, research, advocacy, inquiry and monitoring. The shared services provided include finance, facilities, information technology and privacy, and human resources.

Reporting to the Chief Financial Officer, the Business Manager is part of the finance team in the management, coordination and delivery of centralized financial management services to support the operations of the Office of the Representative for Children and Youth and BC's Office of the Human Rights Commissioner.
