The Representative for Children and Youth (RCY), an independent officer of the B.C. Legislature, works to influence positive change to B.C.'s child-, youth- and young adult-serving system. The Representative's Office is mandated to provide direct advocacy support to children and youth who are connected to the child and youth service system; to monitor and review government services for children and youth; and reviews and investigates deaths and critical injuries of children and youth in BC.

Reporting to the Coordinator, Executive Operations, the Administrative Assistant provides administrative support to RCY's Executive Directors and provides operational and administrative support to the following program areas at the Office of the Representative for Children and Youth:

- Corporate Services (IT/HR/Finance/Communications)
- Individual Advocacy and First Nations, Métis and Inuit Engagement
- Reviews & Investigations
- Systemic Advocacy and First Nations, Métis and Inuit Research

Please note:

- Preference may be given to applicants who are Indigenous, Black or racialized, LGBTQ2SAI+, people with diverse gender identities or expressions, and/or people with disabilities.
- Those with BC public service experience.
- If you self-identify as having one or more of the identities listed above, or otherwise identify as having an identity typically under-represented in the public service, please indicate this in your application to assist us in the review process. We will hold your application in strictest confidence, sharing it only with the hiring panel.
- Please note that this position is required to provide on-site administrative services at our office in Victoria, BC.
- RCY is committed to supporting the health and safety of our staff and those we come into physical contact within the community in the course of our work, who include those most vulnerable to the COVID-19 virus. RCY has introduced a requirement for proof of vaccination against COVID-19. Everyone hired by RCY must agree to fulfil all vaccination requirements that apply to RCY employees. Accommodation will be considered for those who are unable to take the vaccine for a reason protected by the BC Human Rights Code

- This position is excluded from union membership
- An eligibility list may be established for future permanent or temporary vacancies. Temporary appointments resulting from the eligibility list may be extended and/or become permanent.
- The successful applicant requires a police record check and is subject to a criminal record review.
