

Competition #96282Office of the Representative for Children and Youth*Intake and Community Relations Coordinator*Administrative Officer 18*Permanent, full time under the Public Service Act*Location: Prince George, B.C.*Salary: $58,319.24 - $66,096.20.

The Representative for Children and Youth (RCY), an independent and non-partisan officer of the B.C. Legislature, works to influence positive change to B.C.'s child-, youth- and young adult-serving systems. Working under the authority of the Representative for Children and Youth Act and Regulations, the Representative's Office provides advocacy support to people dealing with the service system and advocates directly on behalf of children, youth and young adults, monitors and reviews government services for children and youth and reviews and sometimes investigates deaths and critical injuries of children and youth who are receiving services.

Reporting to the Manager, Outreach and Community Engagement, the Intake and Community Relations Coordinator is responsible for providing intake services for the Representative for Children and Youth through assessing all calls and correspondence received and determining eligibility for advocacy services, providing the public with information and referrals, opening files and forwarding service requests as required. The Intake and Community Relations Coordinator is also responsible for supporting the coordination and planning of outreach initiatives designed to increase the awareness and understanding of the role of RCY.
