Public Interest Disclosure Act: Annual report about disclosures for the Office of the Representative for Children and Youth

The Public Interest Disclosure Act (PID Act), B.C.'s new whistleblower protection law, came into force on Dec. 1, 2019.

One of the requirements is that “Each year, a chief executive, or a delegate of the chief executive, must prepare a report on all disclosures of wrongdoing that have been made in that year in respect of the ministry, government body or office for which the chief executive is responsible, including disclosures made to the Ombudsperson, if a designated officer of the relevant ministry, government body or office has been notified about the disclosures or investigations.”

In accordance with the following sections of the PID Act, for the reporting period of Apr. 1, 2022, to Mar. 31, 2023, the following information is reported:

Section 38 (1)

Disclosures of wrongdoing in respect of the Office of the Representative for Children and Youth 1
