

Who Are We?

We're the Representative for Children & Youth (RCY). Think of us as your support team when dealing with government services.

We're independent - that means we're separate from government. We can speak up for you without being influenced by them.

Ready to chat?

Reach out. We're here to help you navigate services and stand up for your rights.

get in touch

Phone:

1-800-476-3933

Email:

rcy@rcybc.ca

Visit Our Website:

Scan the QR Code
below or visit

rcybc.ca

RC&Y

YOUR VOICE MATTERS!

Free & Confidential Advocacy
for Young People in B.C.

RC&Y Representative
for Children & Youth

We Listen to Your Story

You have rights - we can help you understand them and ensure they're respected.

We Guide You Through Services

Ministries and government programs can be confusing. We can help you navigate them.

We Advocate on Your Behalf

Do you have a meeting with a social worker or other official? We can coach you beforehand or be part of the meeting.

We Make Connections

We can guide you toward helpful community groups and services.

We're Experienced

We know the ins and outs of the system and can help you find solutions.

If you are 18 years & under we can help!

Feeling Unsafe or Unhappy?

Tell us if your group home or foster care isn't working for you, or if you need a safer place to live.

Need Help with Mental Health or Addiction?

We can help you navigate services and supports and help resolve problems that might come up.

Issues with Your Social Worker or Care?

If you're upset about how you're being treated, we will listen.

Have Questions About Your Rights?

Learn how to speak up for yourself and understand your rights.

Need Your Files or Answers?

We can help you get information and explanations for decisions about your care.

If you are 19 to 27 years old we can help!

Community Living BC

Have your voice heard and rights respected while accessing these services

Transitioning to Adulthood

Struggling with supports as you transition out of government care? We're here to help.

Education Resources

Learn about the Provincial Tuition Waiver program and financial help.

And more....

